Performer	Description
Ann Pandora Duarte (NYC) Contemporary	Transcommunion makes a statement for the idea that we live in a world of universal change. Therefore, we should not be ashamed of the fact that we are constantly changing. Rather, we should celebrate it. Change is the very nature of existence. Change is the very nature of the universe. Change is the very nature of the human experience on Earth, and the purpose of applying the technologies mentioned here for free into a various everyday life is to help people to realize that they are not alone in their experience of change. Change is a universal experience that we all share in common. Change is the very nature of life. Change is the very nature of the universe. Change is the very nature of existence. Change is the very nature of the human experience on Earth. Change is the very nature of life. Change is the very nature of the universe. Change is the very nature of existence. In this way, we create a community that has a mandate to support one another in the process of change. Change is the very nature of life. Change is the very nature of the universe. Change is the very nature of existence. Change is the very nature of the human experience on Earth
